Tickets Still Available for Remember When Event

BLOOMINGTON, IL---Tickets are still available for the eighth annual Remember When event on Friday, April 17 from 6:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m. at the Doubletree Hotel and Conference Center, 10 Brickyard Drive, in Bloomington.

"Guest's will be swept back in time to the glamorous days of 1950's Hollywood with a celebration of icons such as James Dean, Sandra Dee, Lucille Ball and Marilyn Monroe," said Melissa Chrisman, Manager of Special Events for the Chapter. "All guests will be walking a red carpet in to the event, complete with paparazzi, just like a Hollywood awards show. Each table will have their own trivia game surrounding a famous Hollywood icon that they can play with the other guests they are seated with. There will also be an opportunity for people to have their pictures taken with famous Hollywood legends via a green screen picture maker. The planning committee is pulling out all the stops to make sure this is the premier spring event in Bloomington."

Currently, there are five-million Americans affected by Alzheimer's disease. Every 70 seconds someone develops Alzheimer's disease and by mid-century Alzheimer's will strike a new victim every 33 seconds. In addition, ten-million baby boomers will develop Alzheimer's disease in their lifetime. The epidemic is real and the time to act is now. All proceeds from Remember When will go towards vital community resources for all persons affected by this devastating disease.
