

Alzheimer's Association Senior Housing FinderSM

Housing with care that fits your needs

Individuals with Alzheimer's require care and environments that address their specific needs. The Alzheimer's Association Senior Housing FinderSM, powered by SNAPforSeniors[®], easily and quickly helps you find dementia care options in your community.

Senior Housing Finder is part of the Alzheimer's Association CareSource[™], an online suite of services to help with care planning. It's free and provides detailed listings of licensed residences throughout the United States that offer services especially for people with dementia.

Save time by customizing your search, based on attributes of a residence that are important to you. Search by:

- geographic criteria
- availability status
- name of residence
- license type
- housing category
- desired lifestyle offerings
- care services, including the level of dementia care offered

Visit Senior Housing Finder today at the Alzheimer's Association CareSource: www.alz.org/caresource alzheimer's  association[®]

the compassion to care, the leadership to conquer

The Alzheimer's Association is here for you and all your caregiving needs.

Go to www.alz.org for Alzheimer resources, support and information or to log on to our message boards.

Call our 24/7 Helpline to receive confidential care consultation from trained professionals. Or, visit the Alzheimer's Association to attend support groups and education programs.

For reliable information and support, contact the Alzheimer's Association:

1.800.272.3900
www.alz.org

The Alzheimer's Association is the leading voluntary health organization in Alzheimer care, support and research.

This is an official publication of the Alzheimer's Association but may be distributed by unaffiliated organizations and individuals. Such distribution does not constitute an endorsement of these parties or their activities by the Alzheimer's Association.

© 2007 Alzheimer's Association. All rights reserved.